A Message from Your Directors

As we reflect on another incredible year, we're filled with immense gratitude for each of you who has been a part of our artistic family.

To our dedicated musicians and bright young stars, your talent and passion are truly at the core of everything we do. We've been so inspired by your commitment, your burgeoning creativity, and the courage you show every time you step onto the stage. Witnessing your growth and watching you transform into confident, expressive performers has been a profound joy, and we couldn't be more proud of the amazing individuals you're becoming.

To the parents and guardians, thank you for entrusting us with your children's artistic journeys. Your unwavering support — from carpooling to rehearsals, helping with practice, or simply being their biggest cheerleaders in the audience — has been absolutely vital to the success of our programs. Your dedication and encouragement mean the world to us, and we are incredibly thankful for all you do behind the scenes.

As directors, educators, and mentors, it's been a true honor to guide you all. We've seen you embrace new challenges, discover hidden strengths, and forge lasting friendships. The lessons learned and the memories made here, both on and off stage, will undoubtedly stay with you for years to come.

While this season may be drawing to a close, we eagerly anticipate the exciting possibilities that lie ahead. Whether your path leads you to future productions with us or to new adventures, please know that you'll always hold a special place in our hearts. Our doors are always open to welcome you back home.

Thank you, once again, for your passion, your hard work, and your boundless spirit. You are the future of the arts, and we can't wait to see all the incredible things you'll achieve.

With our deepest appreciation and admiration,
Your Directors,
Catherine Cianciulli and the Artistic Staff of
The Conservatory of Music and Dance
